

Frederic Chopin Music and Dance Concert

Marking the 200th Anniversary of Chopin's birth (1810 - 1849)

The Award-Winning Internationally Famous

Polonia Dance Ensemble

is available to perform a 45- to 60- minute dance concert at schools, libraries and other forums, that features the graceful and regal Polonaise Dance, which was traditionally performed at the beginning of all stately Balls In Europe in the 1800s, the lively Mazurka Dance with its colorful folk costumes and the elegant Waltz.

The dance group is accompanied by pianists Anna Zawadzka and Daniel Szefer, who will play the unforgettably beautiful music composed by the Great Frederic Chopin. The program includes an informational narrative about Chopin's life and music.
